Developing, Evaluating and Critiquing Business Valuations for Litigation

Determining the value of a business can seem a daunting task to a litigator. But, when the case calls for it, effective advocacy requires at least a basic understanding of the fundamentals of business valuation. Among other things, a litigator must be able to recognize when a valuation is necessary, work with an expert to develop the valuation, present valuation testimony in court, and critique the other side's valuation and cross-examine the opposing expert. Join respected business valuation experts Greg Gadawski and Darryl Dorell, CPAs and principals of Financial Forensics; and veteran trial lawyer Julie Vacura, of Larkins Vacura Kayser, for an inter-active discussion of these topics as they explore business valuation from a litigation perspective.
