Common Probate Mistakes in Wrongful Death, Survival
Actions and Claims for Minors

This program will address some of the most common misconceptions, errors and issues that arise when a party to an action has died, or when a party is mentally incapacitated or is a minor. Brooks Cooper, partner at Draneas & Huglin will address the following in this class:

- Where to file,
• Timing issues for filing and statute of limitations,
• Interactions between civil cases and the probate system,
• Differences in local rules,
• The use of guardian ad litem and personal representatives,
• Practical considerations for pursuing claims, and
• The restrictions and technical rules for settlement and collection.
